DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a two and one half story high, two bay wide rowhouse with a tiled saddleback roof and stone foundation wall. There are identical entrances of flat wooden double doors and arched transoms and stone steps and stoop. A large parlor sash window is centered between the two doors. The doors and window are further defined by accompanying stone arched lintels. The second story facade is punctuated by two windows with stone sills and lintels. The window to the left is single hung, flat, and with a flat transom. The other window is flat and of a tripartite design with three single hung lights and transoms over each. Rustication embellishes the adjacent brick facade on both sides of the two windows. A stone cornice visually divides the second and half stories. The dormer to the left side is punctuated by a double hung window with twenty over one lights. The other dormer resembles a bay window and houses a flat double hung window with twenty-four over one lights in the dormer wall that is parallel to the building's facade. The roof is covered with S tiles.
